

LET IT SNOW

Oh, let it snow
Oh, let it snow
How forgiving, how evolved
Am I with you when you hold me

Let me stay just some more
Cover me up head to toe
Lay me down and let my head rest

I slip away as I veer
Losing track of what is real
Often wonder if I'm still here

Oh, let it snow
Oh, let it snow
How forgiving, how evolved
Am I with you when you hold me

Oh, let it go
Oh, let it flow
Like the river down the road
All I need is you to hold me

Crooked people, crooked towns
Alley ways with eerie clowns
Make me shiver as I close my eyes

Flying high with no aim
Icy steeples in my way
Wake me up and make them go away

Oh, let it snow
Oh, let it snow
How forgiving, how evolved
Am I with you when you hold me

Oh, let it go
Oh, let it flow
Like the river down the road
All I need is you to hold me

Let me stay just some more

Cover me up head to toe
Lay me down and let my head rest

Slipping up as I veer
Losing track of what is real
Often wonder if I'm still here

Oh, let it snow
Oh, let it snow
How forgiving, how evolved
Am I with you when you hold me

Oh, let it go
Oh, let it flow
Like the river down the road
All I need is you to hold me

Oh, let it snow
Oh, let it snow
How forgiving, how evolved
Am I with you when you hold me

Oh, let it go
Oh, let it flow
Like the river down the road
All I need is you to hold me

Hold me tight
You're all I got

BETTER PIN ME DOWN

Yeah, yes, I want it bad
It's burning my eyes and soul
But I'm not backing down
No, I'm not backing down

How many a time
I saw the way out through that door
But I'm not turning back
No, I'm not going back

Voices deafening at times
Telling me "Let it go!"
But go where, I ask

Daunt me, doubt me, play me up
Twist my arm but better hold me down
Trick me, quit me, stand me up
Toss me out but better pin me down

Daunt me, doubt me, play me up
Twist my arm but better hold me down
Trick me, quit me, stand me up
Toss me out but better pin me down

Every now and then
I do lose my way in the crowd
And I tumble down
Yes, I tumble down

But when I get up
And look up ahead far beyond
My wings open wide

Daunt me, doubt me, play me up
Twist my arm but better hold me down
Trick me, quit me, stand me up
Toss me out but better pin me down

Daunt me, doubt me, play me up
Twist my arm but better hold me down
Trick me, quit me, stand me up
Toss me out but better pin me down

Daunt me, doubt me, play me up
Twist my arm but better hold me down
Trick me, quit me, stand me up
Toss me out but better pin me down

Daunt me, doubt me, play me up
Twist my arm but better hold me down
Trick me, quit me, stand me up
Toss me out but better pin me down

I know I have it now
It's filling my chest and heart
And I'm breathing calm
Yes, I'm breathing strong

I'm ready to get on
Get rid of my bags and stones
And embrace the light
Turn wrong into right

Daunt me, doubt me, play me up
Twist my arm but better hold me down
Trick me, quit me, stand me up
Toss me out but better pin me down

Daunt me, doubt me, play me up
Twist my arm but better hold me down
Trick me, quit me, stand me up
Toss me out but better pin me down

SET TO GO

It started out as a fun game
Not any different than hide-and-seek
But no one else understood then
They pointed fingers and called you a freak

You're set to go on a glorious road
Your star will glow on your journey home

So many times you looked for his queue
Through all the mazes and runways
You didn't care just as long as he knew
You'd follow him now and always

You'd follow him till the stars run out
Or till the endpoint of time
It doesn't matter how long or far
Infinity is your sign

You're set to go on a glorious road
Your star will glow on your journey home

The time has come to follow his sound
Space is calling you out there
You realize with your feet off the ground
Nothing's holding you back here

You turn around for the last time
But there's no reason to doubt now
Bid farewell and clear your mind
And take a trip of a lifetime

The time has come to follow his sound
Space is calling you out there
You realize with your feet off the ground
Nothing's holding you back here

You turn around for the last time
But there's no reason to doubt now
Bid farewell and clear your mind
And take a trip of a lifetime

Take a trip of a lifetime

CARRY IT ON

Pinned to my sleeve, strapped to my back
Over my shoulder, deep in my chest
Pinned to my sleeve, strapped to my back
Over my shoulder, deep in my chest

When I decided to go
It was best for all
There was no place to call home
And you knew it all along

Nostalgic as it may seem
Going back would be insane
We never saw eye to eye
You were a stranger right from the start

Carry it on, carry it on
You'll be with me wherever I go
Carry it on, carry it on
Even time won't let me go
No matter what

You taught me so many things
I wish I never had learned
Your tough love made me weak
Just when I needed to be strong

Time has scrubbed all the wounds
I've been healing and letting go
But it still pains me when I count
All those years we lost

Carry it on, carry it on
You'll be with me wherever I go
Carry it on, carry it on
Even time won't let me go

Carry it on, carry it on
You'll be with me wherever I go
Carry it on, carry it on
Even time won't let me go
No matter what

Pinned to my sleeve, strapped to my back
Over my shoulder, deep in my chest
Pinned to my sleeve, strapped to my back
Over my shoulder, deep in my chest

Carry it on, carry it on
You'll be with me wherever I go
Carry it on, carry it on
Even time won't let me go

Carry it on, carry it on
You'll be with me wherever I go
Carry it on, carry it on
Even time can't let me go

Pinned to my sleeve, strapped to my back
Over my shoulder, deep in my chest
Pinned to my sleeve, strapped to my back
Over my shoulder, deep in my chest

Carry it on, carry it on
You'll be with me wherever I go
Carry it on, carry it on
Even time won't let me go

Carry it on, carry it on
You'll be with me wherever I go
Carry it on, carry it on
Even time can't let me go
No matter what

GONE FOR GOOD

Suppose I have a funny little story
That maybe I'll share with you
Sometime

It is about a girl whose name is Dory
She nearly broke my heart
But that's alright

She left me low and dry for someone naughty
And that right there was the blessing
In disguise

But now she's gone
But now she's gone for good
Yeah, now she's gone
And now she's gone for good

My lucky star had better purpose for me
She told me that there was a place
Where my soul mate waits

I turned the page and there she lay before me
More beautiful than life itself
She took my breath away

And now I'm gone
And now I'm gone for good
And now I'm gone
And now I'm gone for good

And now I'm gone
(Every bad for good)
And now I'm gone for good
And now I'm gone
(Every bad for good)
And now I'm gone for good

SMILE

Everybody's got a reason to smile
Everybody's got a reason to smile

When you feel yourself go down
And your feet don't hold your ground
It is time to be reminded
What it is you haven't found

Is it fame and recognition
Is it wealth and fancy friends
Or maybe just by definition
You don't know how to mend

Everybody's got a reason to smile
Everybody's got a reason to smile

Just take a good look all around you
All this vanity just ain't right
And your best friend's down and busted
You can't help him in his fight

The things you take for granted
Are in fact the ones that count
Learn to cherish every moment
And smile, just smile
Just smile wide and bright

Come on out and let me see you shine
Spread your wings and dive into the sky
Let the wind caress your hope and set you free
Embrace the rain and kiss the sun

Show me how it's done
I wanna see you having fun
You got all the reasons, all the reasons in the world
Let me see you smile, let me see you smile

First you hug the morning
Then you quickly wave good-night
And it happens all so fast
You're dumbfound looking back

Come a day when you will find me
Seeming lonely, looking sad
And you quickly realize
All you got to do is smile
To make it alright

WHAT A WAY TO START THE DAY

What a way to start the day
Is what I'm humming in my head
As I pull away the drapes
To let the shiny golden rays

What a way to start the day
With you just a pinch away
I can't believe I'm here to stay
As I embrace the light and sway

What a day to forge ahead
Beyond the valley of the dead
Away from everything I dread
Away from sorrow and regret

Oh-ho
I need to tell it like it is
Every time you laugh I melt away

Oh-ho
I gotta say it like it is
Every time you cry I fade away

What a day to celebrate
The very moment that we met
I still remember how we said
This time it will be till the end

What a day to concentrate
On everything that makes it great
Forget the silly little frets
That try to trip us every day

What a day to see ahead
To hug the future and reflect
Standing tall and full of zest
With you beside me at my best

Oh-ho
I need to tell it like it is
Every time I look at you I shine

Oh-ho
I gotta say it like it is
Never have I felt so much in line

Oh-ho
I need to tell it like it is
Every time you laugh I melt away

Oh-ho
I gotta say it like it is
Every time you cry I fade away

Oh-ho
I need to tell it like it is
Every time I look at you I shine

Oh-ho
I gotta say it like it is
Never have I felt so much in line

Oh-ho
I need to tell it like it is
Every time you laugh I melt away

Oh-ho
I gotta say it like it is
Every time you cry I wilt away

BLUE IS POWER

It makes me blue I don't know why
Just opened up my eyes
The sun is soothing but I'm sad
More tired than last night

Is it right I should remind me
To be happy and content
Say it loud to believe it
How did I descend?

Hold on, hang on
Tell me blue is power
Blue is like my soul

Hold on, hang on
Tell me blue is power
Blue is like my soul

Yes, I wasted quite some time
But how could I have learned?
See me blue, I sing to you
A tear is cutting loose

It is not a battle
The key is to endure

Hold on, hang on
Tell me blue is power
Blue is like my soul

Hold on, hang on
Tell me blue is power
Blue is like my soul

And now you know
How blue, how naked
Is my soul when I sing this song to you

Hold on, hang on
Tell me blue is power
It takes me home from wherever I've gone

And now you know
How blue, how naked
Is my soul when I sing this song to you

Hold on, hang on
Tell me blue is power
It takes me home from wherever I've gone

BECAUSE YOU ASKED

Because you asked I'm going to tell you
How my road brought me here where I belong
I wanted acclaim, I needed admission
Into a world full of fame and glamour life

I hopped on a plane, a mustang of freedom
That took me away far beyond from where I was born
I landed these docks across the Atlantic
Eager for crowns, gold and grandeur in Kodak dreams

But then I began the schooling of life
The one that is real and the one that is tough
I learned from mistakes, my ego got roughed
Down to the depths of my natural self

Because you asked I'm going to tell you
I paid an arm and a leg to earn this prize
The man I was then, cosmetic and fragile
I buried behind and my soul is placid again

Because you asked I'm going to tell you
The warnings were there, on the wall, for all to see
I trained to be me, I learned to be helpful
And tend to the child deep inside, unspoiled and true

All of those years I fought to become
The one that I always imagined I'd be
The path was abrupt, tough and obscure
I couldn't perceive how it ends or begins

All of those days of hard work and strain
All of them turned to be wonderful grains
And then there were sprouts, the blossoms of self
They taught me to be as sincere as I can

I HAD ENOUGH

I still remember how we cheated death
And how we didn't give a damn if we got hurt
I still remember all the nights we spent
Roaming streets without a care in the world

And every time I look into the past
I realize quite fast that those were sacred times
Abound with innocence and pure beliefs
I wish there was a way for me to get it back

I had enough, I had enough
(I gotta get back my sanity)
I had enough, I had enough
(I gotta find a new way ahead)
I had enough, I had enough
(I gotta wipe off that vanity)
I had enough, I had enough

I still remember all the dirty streets
The smell of borsch and meet, the clutter in a heap
I still remember that December
When we all made a pact to never turn our back

I still relive that sharp adrenaline
Rushing through my veins and pounding in my head
And feel the crater hole it left inside
As if a part of me is forever dead

I had enough, I had enough
(I gotta get back my sanity)
I had enough, I had enough
(I gotta find a new way ahead)
I had enough, I had enough
(I gotta wipe off that vanity)
I had enough, I had enough

I had enough, I had enough
(I gotta get back my sanity)
I had enough, I had enough
(I gotta find a new way ahead)
I had enough, I had enough
(I gotta wipe off that vanity)
