

DAY AFTER DAY

Hey
What did I do so wrong today?
How come it doesn't feel right?
And why do you smirk anyway?

You
You in the mirror
I'm talking to you, can you see?
I'm trying to make something clear

Day after day
I've been waiting for you
To show me the way
To give me a clue

Day after day
I've been watching you fade
Walking away
With your head in your hands

You
You in the mirror
You've got to sail this boat ahead
No matter what it takes

Hey you
You permanent dreamer
Open your eyes and look at the sky
It's time to decipher the signs

Day after day
I've been waiting for you
To show me the way
To give me a clue

Day after day
I've been watching you fade
Walking away
With your head in your hands

Day after day
I've been waiting for you
To show me the way
To give me a clue

Day after day
I've been calling your name

Begging you, please
Come back to me

Hey...
You...
You in the mirror

Say
What did I do so wrong today?
How come it doesn't feel right?
And why do you smirk anyway?

Day after day
I've been waiting for you
To show me the way
To give me a clue

Day after day
I've been watching you fade
Walking away
With your head in your hands

Day after day
I've been waiting for you
To show me the way
To give me a clue

Day after day
I've been calling your name
Begging you, please
Come back to me

You
You in the mirror
You
You in the mirror

EYES OF A KILLER

When I was a little boy
I thought the sky was blue
There was nothing that I couldn't do

When I was a young adult
I thought I knew it all
Had the whole world in my crystal ball

Never felt the fear of today
Never thought I'd live to see the day

My face in the mirror
Distorted in disbelief
The eyes of a killer
Staring back at me

My face in the mirror
Distorted in disbelief
The eyes of a killer
Staring back at me

I have come to realize
Nothing is as it seems
All my idols have betrayed my dreams

Never felt so empty and blasé
Never thought I'd live to see the day

My face in the mirror
Distorted in disbelief
The eyes of a killer
Staring back at me

My face in the mirror
Distorted in disbelief
The eyes of a killer
Staring back at me

Never felt the fear of today
Never thought I'd live to see the day
Never felt so empty and blasé
Never thought it'd come to this charade

My face in the mirror
Distorted in disbelief
The eyes of a killer

PERSEVERE

Thoughts spin round my head
Like a shining peal of thunder
Define the way I see
Through a lens of dread and wonder

I'm cursed I'm well informed
In the midst of true believers
Curious enough to see
Through the lies of elite deceivers

There is just one word
That the truth need hear
And this single word
Is persevere

I am afraid I was asleep
Ill-informed and well deceived
Out of tune, behind the beat
Mixing fate with destiny

Inertia and fraud dictate
The way the system's run
And complexity so vast
Is what makes it so much fun

There is just one word
That the truth need hear
And this single word
Is persevere

There is just one word
That the truth need hear
And this single word
Is persevere

When you're naked and ashamed
With your dark worldview
And the scorn of liberals
Is directed right at you

There are worse things in this life
Than being somewhat late
In predicting when collapse
Will leave us to our fate

There is just one word
That the truth need hear

And this single word
Is persevere

There is just one word
That the truth need hear
And this single word
Is persevere

WHERE WERE YOU?

The socialization
Of the world wide web...
Say hello to big brother
Cause your privacy's dead

Just ask Tiger Woods
Mel Gibson, Rex Ryan too
They will all attest
That what I say is true

No more secrets of state
In this Wiki leaks age
TMZ and Deadspin
Will expose all your rage

All your tricks and your shams
All your covert plans
Will end up on their websites
And make the headlines

Where were you when
The entire world went mad?
Were you armed up on the rooftops
Guarding everything you had?

The Mad Men are gone
No more Happy Days
They will keep you exposed
For as long as it pays

They will pay their own way
So no one's taken to jail
And the Federal Reserve
Will let them pencil the curve

No more secrets and lies
No more obsolete spies
They are out for your soul
So, good luck when you hide

All your networks and means
And your colourful themes
Are no match for their mean
Diabolical scheme

Where were you when
The entire world went mad?

Were you armed up on the rooftops
Guarding everything you had?

Where were you when
In a flash the lights went out?
When your full faith in the system
Quickly turned to doubt?

Where were you when
Finally you saw the chains
Placed upon you by a system
That cannot be sustained?

FREE ME

When I begin my recollection
Of moments and acts with tight connections
Places and times of fierce battles
Words left unsaid but not forgotten

Free me, free me
From this tyranny
Oh, free me, free me
From this madness

Reap me, reap me
From this agony
Oh, heal me, heal me
From this sadness

There is a time I still remember
When we were kind and full of candor
Honoured our word and helped the weaker
Sought what was right and did not surrender

Free me, free me
From this tyranny
Oh, free me, free me
From this madness

Reap me, reap me
From this agony
Oh, heal me, heal me
From this sadness

Free me, free me
From this tyranny
Oh, free me, free me
From this madness

Reap me, reap me
From this agony
Oh, heal me, heal me
From this sadness

THEY GOT NO MELODY

You believe in magic
You believe in dreams
You don't even know
What fear means

You bestow to people
The eternal youth
With your words
And with your every move

I can hear them whisper
All in disbelief
As if you're from another time
And place away from here

I can see the madness
Creeping up their eyes
And the fear taking over
Their sensors in their minds

They got no melody
They got no melody
They got only dissonance
They got only dissonance

Look at all the people
And their fancy shoes
Gathering around this crazy fool

Look at all the people
Blinded by the light
Paying tribute to their choice of vice

You can see them dreaming
You can see them yearn
The life they always wish they had
But never got their turn

You can see the fire
Growing in their eyes
The anger feeding off the flames
Now they want your life

They got no melody
They got no melody
They got only dissonance
They got only dissonance

They got no melody
They got no melody
They got only dissonance
They got only dissonance

They got no melody
They got no melody

You believe in magic
You believe in dreams
You don't even know
What fear means

You bestow to people
The eternal youth
With your words

I can hear them whisper
All in disbelief
As if you're from another time

I can see the madness
Creeping up their eyes

They got no melody
They got no melody
They got only dissonance
They got only dissonance

They got no melody
They got no melody
They got only dissonance
They got only dissonance

They got no melody
They got no melody

They got no melody
They got no melody

MOVE ON (WIND)

You can spend all your life
Finding meaning on the ground
You can simply close your eyes
Start chasing dreams that do not count

You can waste all you've got
And end up stuck in a rut
You can drift like a leaf
Falling slowly to settle down

Move on beyond
You shouldn't wander
Keep on moving on
Life's a wonder

You can set yourself free
With the power of your mind
Best if you can realize
What it is you need to find

Lift your head up and breathe
Let the wind be your guide
Turn your eyes to the sea
And feel the breeze, it'll let you fly

Move on beyond
You shouldn't wander
Keep on moving on
Life's a wonder

Move on beyond
You shouldn't wander
Keep on moving on
Life's a wonder

Read on beyond
These gloomy headlines
This sea of stillness

LIFT ANY MOUNTAIN

I wonder if I hear my calling
Or if it is a distant noise
A sort of interference roaming
Makes my thoughts rattle like toys

I plummet down into a spiral
Seduced by questions of despair
An existential ancient rival
Awaits for me with arms in the air

You can lift up any mountain on your own
But your feet ought to be grounded much like a stone
You can lift up any mountain if you try
But you'll waste all that you got if you don't know why

I wonder if I hear my calling
Or if it's just a fading dream
As if I'm holding to a story
That ended when I was only eighteen

I travel back in time like Tony
To find the kid that once was me
To touch his soul and let it calm me
Remind me there is much more to see

You can lift up any mountain on your own
But your feet ought to be grounded much like a stone
You can lift up any mountain if you try
But you'll waste all that you got if you don't know why

I don't know what my life would have been
If I had only second-guessed
Would I be singing lullabies while
I'm leaning over somebody's head

Is this a sign of wisdom calling?
To heed the point of no return
To whisper words of great importance
"A life well lived is a life lived well"

You can lift up any mountain on your own
But your feet ought to be grounded much like a stone
You can lift up any mountain if you try
But you'll waste all that you got if you don't know why

NOBODY CARES

Nobody wants to listen
When I talk of decline
They watch the talking heads
And say that everything's fine

Nobody wants to learn
How money turns the world
Don't want to be disturbed
Don't want to be concerned

Yeah, you can close your eyes
And you can close your mind
But it will not divert
What's coming down the line

Nobody seems to care
That maybe it's too late
And since nobody cares
I'll leave them to their fate

Where is the place when I was kid?
Where is the freedom to do what I did?
What has become of our beliefs?
Who is to blame for harvesting grief?

Because we're not the first
And we won't be the last
Empires built on lies
Have vanished in the past

The thing that stuns me though
And fills my eyes with tears
Is how quickly we traded
Our freedom for fear

When a nation of now
Creates a culture of lazy
When questioning lies
Labels you crazy

See them marching down
And falling off the cliff
When the riots begin
Perhaps you'll get my drift

Where is the place when I was kid?
Where is the freedom to do what I did?

What has become of our beliefs?
Who is to blame for harvesting grief?

Where is the place when I was kid?
Where is the freedom to do what I did?
What has become of our beliefs?
Who is to blame for harvesting grief?

Where is the place when I was kid?
Where is the freedom to do what I did?
What has become of our beliefs?
Who is to blame for harvesting grief?

Where is the place when I was kid?
Where is the freedom to do what I did?
What has become of our beliefs?
Who is to blame for harvesting grief?

THE LESSER OF TWO EVILS (Part 1)

Separate the church and state
And keep them all sedate
With liquor stores and fashion whores
Expensive balls of eight

Ambiguous attempts to slow
Our fabled global warming
Hybrid mixtures in result
With vicious circles forming

Choice we're forced to make
Knowing what's at stake
The lesser of two evils
The lesser of two evils

Fear of losing base
Or falling down from grace
The lesser of two evils
The lesser of two evils

When the Mayans tell us that
The end's around the corner
If Earth is a piece of cloth
How far have we torn her?

As the oil is creeping slow
And sure towards our shores
We begin to realize
The Earth's become our whore

Choice we're forced to make
Knowing what's at stake
The lesser of two evils
The lesser of two evils

Fear of losing base
Falling down from grace
The lesser of two evils
The lesser of two evils

Fear of losing base
Terrified to take
The lesser of two evils
The lesser of two evils

Fear of losing base
While trying saving face

The lesser of two evils
The lesser of two evils

Choice we're forced to make
Knowing what's at stake
The lesser of two evils
The lesser of two evils

Fear of losing base
Falling down from grace
The lesser of two evils
The lesser of two evils

THE LESSER OF TWO EVILS (Part 2)

The lesser of two evils
Lives under a bridge
Right beside a river
Filled with three-eyed fish

Next week he'll be mayor
Or congressman, or judge
But nobody will vote
Lazy nation does not budge

Because there's no remote
To vote you'd have to move
But for reality TV

The reason for our right to choose
Has fallen out of sight
How quickly we've forgotten
Why our fathers fought the fight

The lesser of two evils
Is a choice we're forced to make
Searching for solutions
Too terrified to take

A risk for fear of losing
Your polished comfort base
And nothing gets accomplished
Except for saving face

So, call this drug free number
And they'll tell you what to say
We've got to buy some influence
We'll use your hard-earned pay

To launch an anti-love campaign
From friendly bureaucrats
Surround you with your tax returns
And itemize your past

Our culture fueled by ego
As our beaches fill with tar
If we could harness ego
We could power every car

Watching Wall Street crumble
As the nation bear its scars

As the lesser of two evils
Watches from afar

The lesser of two evils
Is a choice we're forced to make

A risk for fear of losing
Except for saving face

The lesser of two evils
The lesser of two evils

We all begin to wonder
What Earth has got in store
If we've become the sickness
Perhaps we all must go

For if we are infected
Our temperature will rise
To save a dying planet
Something has to die

The lesser of two evils
Is a choice we're forced to make

A risk for fear of losing
Your polished comfy base
And nothing gets accomplished
Except for saving face

The lesser of two evils
Is a choice we're forced to make

Except for saving face

The lesser of two evils
Is a choice we're forced to make
